ORDER:

Orders were issued in the above G.O. instructing the Provincial Textile Commissioner to authorise Collectors of all Districts to issue special permits for the export of handloom cloth to places within the Dominion outside the Madras zone. The main object of the Government was to avoid the delay involved in concentrating the entire work in the office of the Provincial Textile Commissioner. The Government have reason to believe that this object has not been achieved but that on the other hand, applicants have all sorts of difficulties from subordinate officials. The intension of Government was that permits should be granted freely to anyone that applied. The need for issue of special permits in these cases will be there only until such time as the Textile Commissioner, Bombay issues a general authorisation in this regard and he has been addressed by the Provincial Textile Commissioner already to this effect. Until such time as the general authorisation is issued, permits should therefore be granted by the Provincial Textile Commissioner and the Collectors as a matter of course, immediately on the presentation of applications. There is no need for any enquiry or checking of stocks.

2. The Government have decided that powerloom cloth (i.e. cloth produced by a producer having no spinning plant and cloth imported from outside India may also be allowed to be freely exported out of the Province in the same way as handloom cloth.

3. It is of the essence if malpractices are to be avoided that the public should be made to feel that permits would be granted automatically on application. Very serious view should therefore be taken of any delay on the part of staff in dealing with applications.

4. The Government also consider that there is no need to limit the quantity of handloom cloth that would be exported by any person to 30,000 ~~ten~~ yards per month. The Provincial Textile Commissioner is requested to revise his instructions in para 2 of his letter No. 62270/48 E2, dated 28.10.48 and to issue a suitable press release.
